Selectmen's Statement

We wish to call attention to the financial statement and offer a little bit of an explanation, viz: The highways and bridges assessment for 1915 was $5000, and the selectmen were especially instructed to build a state road from the precinct line to the Jefferson town line at Riverton, and to use the credit of the town to pay for same, if needed. As will be seen in the detailed report, under head of "Riverton road," the cost was $5389.72; the state paid $2000 making net cost to town $3389.72. The three road districts have expended $5623.81. Instead of hiring the amount of the overdrafts, we have been able to pay all bills out of money in the treasury. This money has fluctuated considerably during the year, as we have received $5500.00 in cemetery trust funds; $6000.00 on temporary notes; and $2114.38 school trust funds; have paid $6000.00 four per cent notes, and the $6000.00 temporary loan.

The school trust fund has but recently been paid into the treasury, and will be subject, after town meeting, to the order of the new board of trustees. The principal items of expense not provided for in the appropriations, but authorized by vote or by law, are: county tax, in excess of appropriation, $828.07; highways, $623.51; joint maintenance account, $423.70; municipal court, $184.59; lock-up, $258.02; Riverton road, $3389.72; making a total of $5523.02.

This naturally made it impossible for any reduction of the town debt.

Instead of our usual financial statement, we are using this year a plan recommended by the state tax commission.

Lancaster Public Library.

The Lancaster Public Library since March 15, 1915, has been open for the delivery of books every afternoon and evening as voted, instead of three afternoons and evenings a week as formerly. The number of books given out last year was 13,287, (1,572 being non-fiction), an increase of 2,240. $95.85 was taken in for fines and cards, which was more than any previous year.

Over 200 new volumes have been added, so there are now 10,200 books upon the shelves. Among the thirty different periodicals in the Reading Rooms are those newly subscribed for, "The Survey" and "Country Gent." The reading matter for all classes and the many reference books has attracted a larger number of young people who make the library a resort for studious purposes.

A new revolving book case and book holder have recently been purchased for the reading rooms.
